

[This page prints out on 1 sheet]

Health Insurance

Health insurance is important to understand

It's very important that you get health insurance for your child. Health insurance pays for your child's medical bills.

- Medical bills are the costs that come from doctor and hospital visits, tests, and assistive listening devices for your child.
- Your child's medical bills can be very high.

Read these pages to find out more information about getting your child health insurance:

Types of health insurance < <http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/health/types.jsp> >

What health insurance covers < <http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/health/covers.jsp> >

How to get health insurance for your child <<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/health/child.jsp>>

Last updated: July 26, 2004

You can find this page online at:

<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/health/healthplan.jsp>