

[This page prints out on 1 sheet]

Getting Help

Read this section to find the people and groups who can help you

With all the different things you're learning and going through, you may feel overwhelmed. But there are people and resources that can help you. Click on the links below to find out what they are.

Mental Health

(<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/mental.jsp>)

Find out where you can get help if your child has a problem.

Money

(<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/money/>)

Having a child with hearing loss can be expensive. But there is help. Read this section to find out what kind of help you can get.

Health Insurance (<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/health/healthplan.jsp>)

Medical bills can cost a lot. Find out how you can get help paying for your child's care.

People Who Can Help

(<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/people/>)

Audiologist? Early Intervention teacher? ENT? Who are all these people? We explain what the names mean, and who does what.

Technology

(<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/tech/>)

Find out the different devices that can help your child hear more sound.

Your Child's Rights

(<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/rights/>)

Learn about the different laws that protect your child's rights in school and other places.

Want to know more? Find out who can help you in your state

(<http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/ehdi/protocol3.htm>).

And check out our Resources (<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/resources/>) section for more websites, groups and books that can help you.

This page was last edited on December 30, 2003.

You can find this page online at:
<http://www.raisingdeafkids.org/help/>